TALE TWISTER... According to the "Chrysler Tonic," dealer publication of the Chrysler Corp., a "Policeman's lot CAN be a happy one," despite the colorful writing of W. S. Gilbert in the operetta "Pirates of Penzance." The editors of the "Tonic" seek to prove their theory in the July 1 issue by printing a picture of Chief of Police John Stroh, Mrs. Stroh, and daughter Lucille as they picked up a new Chrysler Saratoga at the factory recently. Chief Stroh arranged for delivery of the car at the factory through Dick Barton, Chrysler dealer here.

Al and Alice McKenzie, 4332 W. 178th, attended a big family picnic at Van Nuys over the week-end. Virginia and Larry Gatti and children Rita and Alicia, who reside at 4248 W. 178th, went camping this week at Trabuco Canyon.
Sorry to hear that Jerry Kupka, 4247 W. 178th Pl., was so unfortunate this week. He was struck by an auto while on his bicycle and suffered many bruises, not to mention his badly smashed bicycle. Jerry is 11 years old and his quick thinking perhaps saved him even more injuries, as he jumped from the bike to prevent himself from being dragged with the vehicle.
Those children who witnessed the accident at Hawthorne Blvd. between 178th and 179th W. I am sure, be careful while walking down such busy streets. Boys and girls troop to Alondra Park with their towels bent on a swim and so very often forget to watch the oncoming traffic. These particular children were being given a ride by a passerby, and as they were about to enter the car another struck them from behind painfully injuring both. Parents should caution the boys and girls to be extremely careful while commuting to the parks. At times the streets and highways are lined with various groups who pay little or no heed to the busy traffic.

The old neighbors and friends of Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, who until recently lived on Falda Ave., will perhaps be happy to know that although her car was badly smashed by a motorist, who jumped the center lane and headed into the oncoming traffic striking Margaret in the side and causing quite some damage, Margaret was not hurt. The Montgomerys now reside in San Diego.
We have a problem at our house (perhaps you are going through the same). Seems as though the most important thing at the moment is a Roy Rogers ring. It's all very simple, you only buy a package of Raisin Bran and the ring is enclosed. The only hitch is that box after box has come into this household and we now have rings bearing Roy's wife Dale Evans, his horse Trigger, yes, even his gun, but so far no Roy Rogers! How much Raisin Bran can you eat?

Laurels go this week to Merle Holstein, of 5124 Zakon Rd., for averting a tragedy in the Jim Clark family (5125 Zakon Rd.). Hearing Barbara Clark screaming, Merle dashed from her kitchen and through her flower bed to find little David Clark, age 1 1/2, turning blue. Barbara sobbed that he had swallowed a key to their clock. It was lodged in his throat. Merle grasped his ankles, dropped his head down and smacked him, hard on the bottom. Out flew the key. Both Barbara and Merle still tremble with the memory.

The big, anticipated recitals of Gertrude Lumsden's younger pupils were held last Sunday afternoon and Monday evening at the Lumsden Studio, 5238 Binkewald Rd. They were indeed grand occasions and everyone attending really enjoyed the music and the friendly atmosphere. The style of presenting the different children with short accomplishments, kept the recital on a less formal and more attentive basis. Solos were played by Judith Ryckman, Carolyn Waddingham, Cynthia Jennings, Jo Ann Schreiner, Greg Jurisch, Pamela Ann and Virginia Jo Whitney (twins). Carolyn sang several very lovely numbers, two being "Voices in the Woods" by Rubinstein, and "Beautiful Dreamer" by Foster. Duets were played by the twins Pamela Ann and Virginia Jo and by Judith Ryckman and Carolyn Waddingham. Besides their doting parents, guests included Judy's, aunt and uncle... Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buttweiler, Carolyn's godmother... Mrs. Ben Bond, Cynthia's aunt and uncle... Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, and neighbors of the Heights... Mrs. Claywell, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Phillips and son Jimmy, and Mrs. Helen Slover and daughters, Susan and Nancy. Everyone felt that the children did an excellent job... and everyone gives due credit to Mrs. Lumsden for that. Refreshments were served by Gertrude and her husband, Charles Lumsden.

One birthday party... two birthdays celebrated... 15 happy little guests. The recipients of the big party given of the Sabeo home on Macafee Rd. were Ricky Sabeo, who is now all of four years old, and Jamie Hunter, who is following closely, and is now three. The guests were Danny and Cindy Pace, Louetta and Clarence Snyder, Michael Shanks, David, Bobby and Mark Kessler, Carol, Steven and Greg Sibley, Steven and Dickie Beard, and Kenny and Lee Swanson, all of Macafee Rd. Belated congratulations to all of you, Ricky and Jamie.

Unable to attend the party was Gary Austin... he had the mumps... More on the Austin family, Chuck, Gary's daddy, pulled a ligament in his arm, at work, and is very perturbed because he had to stop work on the cement block retaining wall and fence he has been working on so hard.
I read a very interesting article the other day on color, and these few points keep coming back... Color is the first thing a person notices, the thing he remembers longest... Color can make your house remembered or sell it for you. Example, the John Robinson home at 5260... It is really outstanding with its new green paint job.

Also on the list of new car owners in our area are the Jack Mitchells. They are the proud possessors of a shiny gray Henry J.
Just back from a trip to San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilson of Binkewald Rd. They are the ones, second from the corner, who are building that beautiful redwood fence around their place and have started to paint their house such a clean, cheery yellow.

Dottie Epp has been a widow for the past four weeks, but expects her husband home the end of this week from Texas. Where he has been on business. Of course, she has had the company of her two sweet little daughters to keep her from being too lonely.
Poor Norma and Ted Ledbetter. They certainly have had a hectic time this past month. They had to cancel their cabin reservations at Big Bear, where they had planned to spend their vacation. Their daughter Barbara had the measles. Next... yes... their boy got the measles. And now Norma herself is practically "out" with a very bad cold. We sure wish you a quick recovery and a chain of good luck for a change... Norma and Ted.
